

dear govt:leave us alone and do your job. need a reminder? your job is not to decide what we do, but to help level the playing field when it becomes uneven. again, stop spending the salary we pay you on suppressing our right to free speech, or we will vote you out.